

---

2.4. Montage

Montage of furniture frames is the quadruplicate process of simple frames. The process of combination is made in accordance to the prepared structure, form and the measurement of spaces. If there is the process of lap and mortising, these processes are done and continue with glueing. In long frames if there is the process of spacing, the necessary process is done for that. The control of square and turning of frame should be carefully.

Picture 3.10: Glueing of furniture frame