

2.4. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION MEASURES

- an effective environmental control system must be established.
- the next generation must be trained with a good environmental education.
- The number of civil society organizations for the solution of environmental problems should be increased.
- public institutions and civil society organizations should work in partnership.
- Unplanned urbanization should be created instead of the planned areas of the city.
- Reproduction of forests and protection must be provided.
- Regular and environmentalists organized industrial zones should be created.
- work should be done for the separation of waste at source.
- The use of fuel quality must be ensured.
- prevention of environmental problems for state
by effective regulations It should be established.
- The staff of the Ministry of Environment and Forestry, should be strengthened and work more effectively.
- Local governments should be the primary task of resolving environmental problems.
- incentives for investments to be made about the environment should be initiated.