2.5.5. Noise Pollution Related to the Legal Rights and Responsibilities

- Environmental Law should devolution be done in areas where noise sources programmed, referring to unscheduled or complaints, if necessary other legislation within the scope of authorized institutions and organizations in the cooperation and coordination, to check compliance with the principles set out in this Regulation, acoustic report or peripheral to necessary sources of noise noise level evaluation report to be drawn up, examine and evaluate those reports, to impose administrative sanctions in case of violation of this Regulation,

- While working in coordination and cooperation in the transfer of authority held by institutions and organizations still needed to be seen or demands,

- Delegation of authority to supervise the activities of institutions made caused by environmental noise and to impose administrative sanctions,
- To evaluate the request to the Ministry of institutions and organizations requesting authority, delegation of authority, institution and authority to verify its operation within the framework of the organization to notify the Department by identifying those who fulfill their jurisdiction,

- Provincial Environmental Law made pursuant to Article 14 of the inspection and to forward the results to the Ministry of administrative sanctions,
- Environment Law of Obtaining Permits and Licenses Annex 2 located in the business and the environment will be given to facilities Regulations permit or environmental permits and to assess the scope of the license document, to supervise businesses and facilities within this framework, the Regulation on the implementation of the sanctions required in case of breach of the principles specified ensuring, local national days and celebrations with religious and national holidays for action to be taken in order to derogate by obtaining a Provincial Assembly decision to ban introduced in this Regulation, the decisions taken within the scope of exemptions is responsible for local authorities to publicize.