

1.8.1.1.2 Extinguishing Methods

various fire extinguishing devices used for extinguishing fires according to the type.

A class of fires in unlikely places Dry Powder or aqueous multi-purpose,

Class B possible locations of fires dry chemical powder, carbon dioxide or foam,

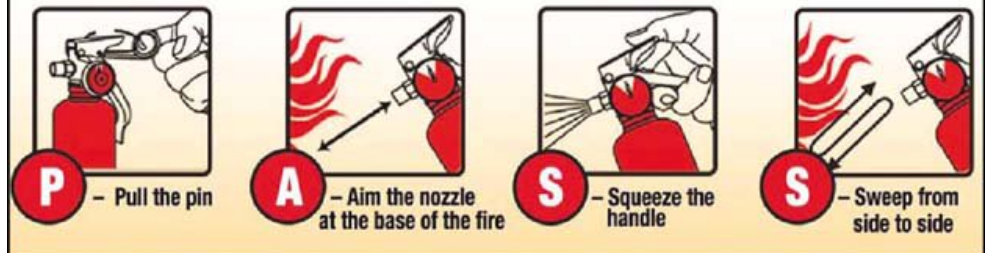

Class C fire breaks out in unlikely places primarily carbon dioxide, or dry chemical powder,

Class D fire breaks out in unlikely places The first will be kept dry metal powder extinguishers.

If detected early how to extinguish the fire it would be so easy

HOW TO USE FIRE EXTINGUISHER

Remember the acronym PASS

The use of the fire extinguisher photo 1.13

Extinguishers outward in the vicinity of the passage gap and marked so as to be seen in each case balanced and distributed to places can be entered easily placed in or around the fire cabinets. training to employees regarding the change of location of fire extinguishers and the necessary instructions are given.