

1.6. Applied Occupational Health and Safety in the Workplace Rules

Commercial disposed of in a good way and not prepared, it raises the morale of the employees in the workplace, which increases the efficiency of work and a lot of work to prevent accidents, it is a known fact.

Each establishment, composition, arranging and be the best provider of that the state should remain a permanent plans and programs. The reason for forming the irregularities and conditions should be corrected, a certain order must be established, then the continuation of this scheme should be provided with daily monitoring and control.

A workplace is an important factor in preventing accidents at work most of the cleaning composition and layout. Adequate and continuous cleaning of Directors and the desired layout, to-do daily work and control is possible. Daily studies must be achieved in order and cleanliness in places and services listed below.

- Working team bench, after completion of the work machine strong cleaned should be put in place.
- In areas where during operation and must be prevented from contaminating the environment, these areas should be kept as clean as possible.
- cleaning in workplaces with the best qualifications to do the cleaning tools and equipment should be available. (Brooms, shovels, mop, brush, Electrically-powered cleaners and brighteners) characterized by establishment (cleaning, special drug etc.) Cleaning tools, devices and equipment must be provided.
- The external environment as well as for cleaning the workplace should also be performed.
- Business collected the debris and garbage, necessary measures must be taken to evacuate.
- Employees to cause sliding off oil, diesel and so on. watermelon with petroleum products, melons, bananas and so on. Nuts must be cleaned up immediately.
- Especially in sites where the production of foodstuffs with the hygienic rules specified in rules and regulations must be complied with, such establishments (mouse, insects, etc.) should be carried out spraying against harmful animals.
- To ensure continued compliance with the rules of cleanliness of the employees, printed brochures must be seen hanging on the part of businesses and warning signs are posted.
- Businesses in dormitories, dining room, bathroom, shower, WC. with places where social activities (which made the public) places are places that can get dirty quickly. Such attention should be paid to the cleanliness of the city.

- Not complying with the rules of cleanliness and order should be warned, those responsible must be notified if necessary.