

•

4.4.2 Technical Specifications

This section takes you into completely put technical work related to the construction. Parties shall mutually agree on the substances specified in the technical contract. They are grouped under five main headings:

she is Material

names of all the materials used for the job, physical characteristics, pattern, color and so on. The relative humidity and should be specified in detail in conjunction with other features similar specification. The type of wood (oak, such as pine, or mahogany.), Color and color state of the material (light or a dark), texture wooden structure, the moisture content of wood (in% according to the properties of the ground will be used as needed in which values), the thickness and grade of plate material with features topics such as characteristics of the accessories must be written in the technical specifications.

she is Construction Techniques (Construction)

There are many jobs in the wood construction techniques and compounds. the intended use of the work to be described in the order desired specification merge this work determined the most appropriate. For example; dovetail drawers gear merge, merge jobs in record crude principled stand tongued assemblies, such as mortise and tenon corner joints in the frame construction.

she is Surface Processing

Usually the wood work surfaces beautification and protection purposeful, made the upper surface operations. The specification of the properties of materials to be used according to the work to be done must be clearly specified. For example; The type of varnish, paint properties such as brightness and condition. It should be noted also how to apply surface treatment (such as by spraying air gun two layers of primer and a layer of varnish topcoat).

she is Making Time Work work start and finish times of work to do with the size of units in the technical specification under this Article shall be clearly stated. The exact dates for the duration of the construction work must be written in the specification.

she is Work and Quality

The quality of workmanship specified in the specification should be held to apply here. Labor is determined by the quality of the projects and compliance with the business of making art. The job done, whatever the quality characteristics described above if it is not careful workmanship

Look bad is inevitable. Quality craftsmanship but orderly, planned and carried out with the work being done consciously.

They received under mutual agreement undersigned at parties. Contracts are issued in two copies.

I. Parties (giving the orders) (order taker)

I ordered according to the above written conditions.

S. that person or firm name:

Address:
....

Signature and stamp:
.....

II. Parties

I received a written order of the above

S. Fields person or company name:

Address:

Signature and stamp:

any Party work in a competent court for failing to comply with this agreement;
..... (here written in a common place name) Republic is the Attorney General's Office.